Over speculation and over-trading, encouraged by a too liberal granting of credits to Egyptian firms by Europeans hanks, have bought shout their inevitable results—less and discredit, bat when this year's large cotton erop is con-varted into 30 millions sterling the present money stringency in Egypt will be relieved. "Just as the European hanks were too biged in the past in facilitating Egyptian firms, so at the present they have become too rigid in withdrawing these facilities. The tendency in our age is to go from one extreme to an-other. In consequence the coming Egyptian cotton campaign will be an ardnous one for Alexandrian traders. Too liberally supplied in recent years with money from European credits, they were in the habit of semiling gold freely into the interior to secure the cotton they required three or four months before it could be available for shipment. This involved an unreasonably long outary. With the present restriction of credit this will no longer be possible to the same extent, and the equit-vators will require to be content to rocsive the money value of what they sell only when the octton is gined and delivered ready for shipment. The result will be that the culti-vators will be unable so specially to pay their taxes or repay their debta to the Agricultural Bank ord their other creditors. the experiment proven successful as and the importations of gold, which now as greatly disturb the money markets of Burope. "These two saggestions which I venture to make can safely be acted upon by the Egyptian Government, and I think they are worthy of its immediate consideration. Their adoption would be quite in harmony with the enlightened and paternal solicitade for the interests of the country which has characterized the present régime in Egypt."

EGYPT AND SUDAN PROJECTS CORPORATION. The following letter from the "Times" will be read with interest. We might, however, point out that the suggestion that the Go-vernment should authorise the National Bank to make a farther issue of notes, tentatively, against: approved securities lodged with European State Banks but without a deposit in gold, appears to us ultra vires the ar-ticles of association of the National Bank. For ourselves we are content to leave the financial arrangements of the contry fin the hands of the advisers of the Govern-hard and the National Bank of Egypt who have served the country is well under the trying circumstances of the crisis.

THE MACEDONIAN OUESTION

THE GOVERNMEN'T'S DEMANDS.

The GOVERNMENT'S DEMANDS: Soria, October 9. The Government, replying to the Austrian and Russian notes, expresses satisfaction at the desision of the Powers to maintain the territorial and political unity of Macedonia, but it insists upon the necessity for defining the limits of the territory in which the reforms will be applied and the administrative division of the country in conformity with the needs of the population. It expresses the desire for the reaction of an impartial tribunal for the set-ting of racial, church, and school disputes. It points out the necessity for taking a consus of the population, completing the reorganisation of the police, and placing the administration of justice under European control. (Reuter)

TURCO-PERSIAN DISPUTE.

ENGLISH AMBASSADOR'S PERSISTENCY

CONSTANTINOPLE, UCTORE A. Owing to the persistent representations of Bir N. O'Conor the attitude in Turkith quar-ters regarding the Turco-Persian dispute is less uncompromising and there is hope of a satisfactory solution of the difficulty. It is understood that all further advance of the Turkish troops has ceased and that there is a prospect of the evacuation of some points before the meeting of the Turco-Persian com-mission.
